ODD BITS OF NEWS.

New Bern, N. C.—A 3-gallon carboy of "monkey rum" in the office of U. S. Commissioner Chas. B. Hill, showed the color of the liquor to be milky and the smell like that of molasses. Moonshiners in North Carolina are making and selling it in large quantities. It is made of water, molasses and certain unknown chemicals. After working, the liquor is 100 proof, and a saucerful will burn for five minutes when lighted. The "monkey rum" lasts three times as long as a whiskey drunk and ends with frightful delirium tremens.

FOR SALE—Scholarship in Capital City Business College. Leader Office.

LEADER WANTS BRINGS RESULTS

Who Will Win the Egg-Laying Pennant? Following is an account from Farm and Fireside of the great egg-laying contest now going on in Connecticut: "The present (fourth) egg-laying contest at Storrs, Connecticut, is furnishing the closest race for egg-laying honors of any contest yet held in this country."

"At the end of the fortieth week the seven pens holding the highest record stood as follows:

White Leghorns (Connecticut) 1,577
White Leghorns (England) 1,577
Rhode Island Reds (Vermont) 1,573
White Wyandottes (England) 1,570
White Wyandottes (England) 1,566
White Leghorns (Connecticut) 1,567
White Leghorns (New York) 1,538

"It will be observed there is a difference of only 39 eggs between the pen with the highest record and the pen standing seventh.

"Last year there was a difference of 265 eggs between the highest pen and the seventh highest pen at the corresponding date.

"The average egg production for the one thousand hens in this contest for the forty weeks was 119.8 eggs. At the corresponding time last year the average production per hen was 115.2 eggs."

DID THE OLD MAN GOOD.
Geo. W. Clough, of Prentiss, Miss., is seventy-seven years old and had trouble with his kidneys for many years. He writes that Foley Kidney Pills did him much good. He used many remedies, but this is the only one that ever helped him. No man, young or old, can afford to neglect symptoms of kidney trouble.

THE PLEASANT SMILE.

He was not rich in worldly goods;

No offices he held;

In no one field it might be said

Of him that he excelled;

He mingled but to get along,

To march with rank and file,

And yet he was unique in this—

He had a pleasant smile.

While others careworn faces wore,

He smiled his way through life;

He'd had his share of trouble, too,

Of worldly care and strife;

But somehow furrows never came

That mark the weary mile;

His face a benediction was—

He had a pleasant smile.

He made our burdens lighter seem;

Our worries chased away;

His cherry greeting always made

A brighter, lighter day;

What thought he never rose to fame,

Or never made his pile?

A monarch might have envied him—

He had a pleasant smile.
